JAILHOUSE NEWS

Hi Inmates! Not much going on this past month, but we are starting planning for the Annual General Meeting and Heritage Days Festival. Read on for wassup!

Annual General Meeting Saturday, Oct. 2.

We will need to elect officers, drink beer and eat Bar-B-Q. We will have a guest speaker, like last time and hopefully some music. We'll give jail tours and all of this is FREE (although bring your checkbook to renew your membership and make a donation). Mark your calendar.

Heritage Days Oct. 16 and 17. This year, we will give jail tours both days. We'd also like to close Oatman St. between East Main and the river and perhaps have a music venue by the jail. Food and beer will tentatively be sold by the jail. The Brazos Bottom Cow'ographers will set up their town on the courthouse square, but they will perform the breakout of Johnny Ringo at the Red Top. He'll probably arrive by stagecoach again! We will need tour guides and help, so save the date.

Paranormal Investigations. The Llano Historical Ghost Society pulled an all-nighter and had some interesting "events". They gave us 3 photos of apparitions that they saw at the jail. One shows "orbs" outside of the jail, with one really bright light. Another shows an eerie glow surrounding the pulpit in the Doolittle Chapel room. Another, taken from outside, shows a strange light looking into the Doolittle Chapel room.

Hill Country Paranormal Investigations also recently spent a night at the Red Top and they had lots of personal experiences. Someone got poked, someone had their head touched, and they heard rustling upstairs. Digital recordings known as EVPs gave some very clear voices. One said "Come here". Another said, as the investigators were leaving the Chapel room, "Oh, where are they going?" In a little girl's voice, someone said "Papa, you're going to have to get on your mount!" They gave us a quite clear picture of a person in the Chapel room taken from outside. This person wore a cap. A flashlight turned on and off in answer to questions. It was all SPOOKY
